ARTCITI
Creativity from all spheres

Rukhe Neelofer

is an artist who has extensive teaching experience at both university and school level. She has been exhibiting her paintings in Pakistan and abroad, and worked in many countries as a resident artist, like India, USA, Italy, Turkey, Norway and Japan.

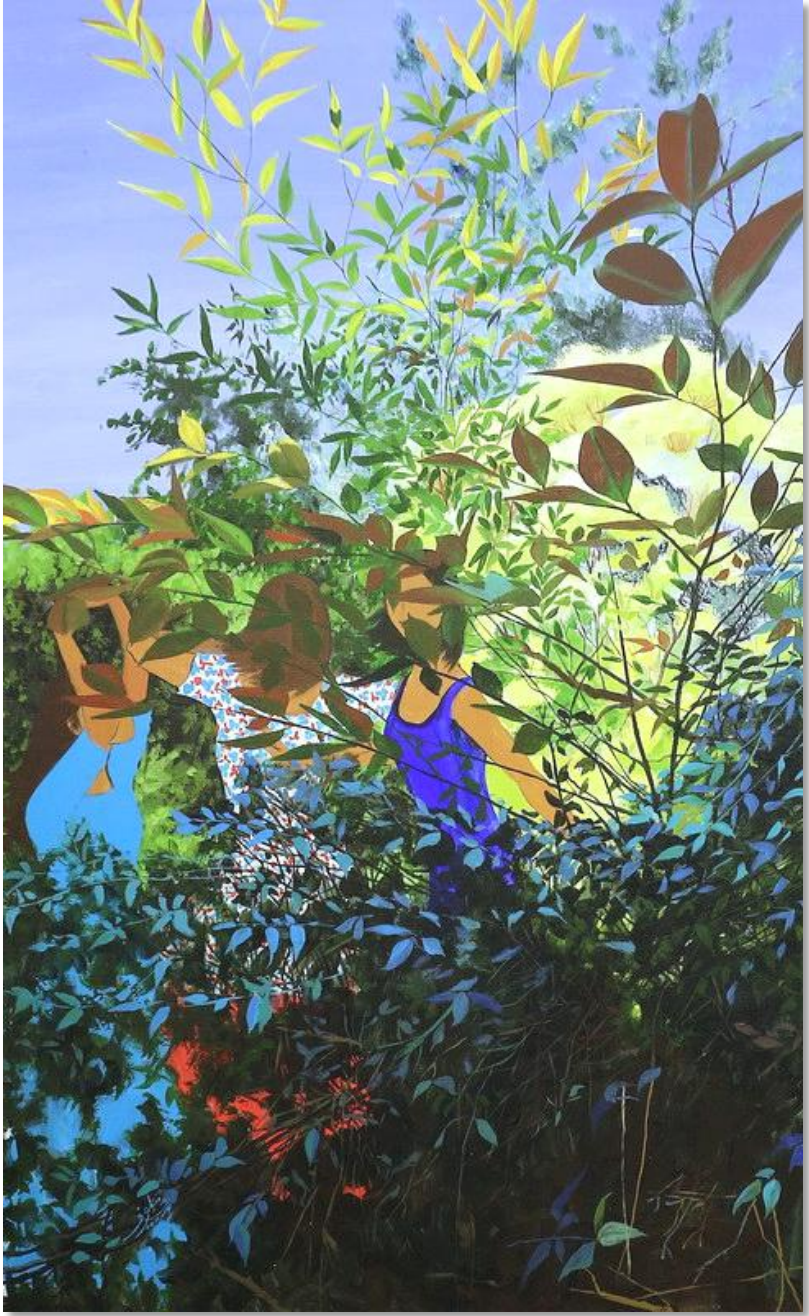

Rukhe considers developing an art curriculum for a very large school system in Pakistan as one of her biggest achievements which she feels will engage parents, thus involve them in the aesthetic endeavors that once formed an essential part of the heritage of this land.
